Your High School Cumulative GPA is what you will use when you apply for education and training after high school during your Senior year. The higher your cumulative GPA the more options you will have.

College Entrance is Competitive!

Not everyone who applies to a college is accepted. There are often more students applying for college entrance than there are spots available. The common admissions index (GPA) used by colleges to accept students is 3.0. High school...

You can click on one of the classes to view the teacher's grade book and check grades on all assignments – you can even see assignments that may be missing...
